Western Neighborhoods Project

www.outsidelands.org
The MISSION

• Preserve and share the history of western San Francisco neighborhoods

• WHY?

• Sausalito population = 7,000

• Richmond District population = 70,000
Richmond
Sunset
West of Twin Peaks
Lake Merced
OMI
“BLACKIE”
SWIMMING THE GOLDEN GATE
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.
Western Neighborhoods Project

Preserving the history of San Francisco's West side

Upcoming Events

Ingleside Terraces: Racetrack to Residence Park
Nov 8, 2012 7:00pm-8:00pm (Thursday) at Bookshop West Portal

Woody LaBounty, author of the new book Ingleside Terraces: San Francisco Racetrack to Residence Park, will conduct an illustrated presentation on a city neighborhood with a unique past.

On November 28, 1895 the Ingleside Racetrack opened in the foggy reaches of southwestern San Francisco as the most opulent horse racing venue west of the Mississippi River. More Info...

SF History Minute

This Episode: Sunset School Demolition

Articles – New this Month

Recent | Random | Richmond Articles | Sunset Articles

The Parkside and the Characters from Long Ago
Remembering three interesting men from the Parkside District of the 1930s and 1940s.

Streetwise: The Ways We Give Thanks

www.outsidelands.org
Playland
A large amusement zone on the Great Highway north of Golden Gate Park, it was a destination for San Franciscans from the 1910s to 1972.

About These Photos
These historical images of San Francisco primarily come from one collector who wishes to remain anonymous. The collection may be the greatest in private hands, amounting to over 100,000 negatives and prints. OpenSFHistory is a program created by the nonprofit organization, Western Neighborhoods Project, to share these images, and those from similar private collections, with the world. More information at About OpenSFHistory

9222 Historical Images Online to Date
Save SF History
Each dollar donated saves and puts online another San Francisco historical image.
Make a one-time donation to save some history.

Recent Updates
19th & Sloat
Ocean Beach
Ocean Beach
Unknown Location

News
Celebrating the Opening of the Golden Gate Bridge - May 23, 2016
This year, the most iconic and recognizable bridge in the world celebrates the 79th anniversary of its opening on May 27, 1937. Read More...

Introducing OpenSFHistory - Nov 21, 2015
by Woody Labkovsky, Founder of Western Neighborhoods Project OpenSFHistory is a program of Western Neighborhoods Project to make private collections of historical San Francisco images open to the public. But OpenSFHistory isn't just a website of old photos. Read More...
outsidelands.org

facebook.com/outsidelands

twitter.com/outsidelandz

instagram.com/westernneighborhoods